SUMMER SESSION OF WESTERN STATE NORMAL A GRAND SUCCESS

With the close, Friday, August 5, of the seventh summer session of the Western State Normal School, another successful period in this institution's history is ended. Van Buren county, as in previous years, has held a prominent place in the work of the summer school this year. From this section more than 100 students, most of whom are teachers in the county, have been in attendance, Van Buren again leading the list in the number of students enrolled from any one county.

Commissioner V. R. Hungerford has again served efficiently on the teaching force, having charge of some work in history during the summer school. In addition to his work as instructor, Mr. Hungerford has maintained his usual interest in the studies from his county, holding them together and otherwise contributing to the fine spirit among them. A general meeting of the people from this county was held recently, with Mr. Hungerford present, and plans were organized for the big county party, which was held July 25th. This event was one of the most enjoyable occasions of the summer school, bringing together the students from the twelve counties affiliated with the Western Normal—Allegan, Cass, Calhoun, Barry, Berrien, Branch, Kalamazoo, Kent, Ottawa, St. Joseph, Hillsdale and Van Buren. Over 400 were present.

In the large enrollment of this year of more than 825 students, a far wider territory than ever before is represented. Forty four counties in Michigan are shown, and there are students from Indiana, Illinois, New York, Washington, California, Idaho, Nevada, and from Canada and Jamaica. In many ways this has been the best summer term the Normal has ever known, excelling in the high standard of work the summer schools of previous years.

One of the principal changes this year has been the removal of the review work from the Vice street building to the training school on the hill, eliminating much of the travel necessary last year. The training school has also been open for four weeks for observation work, many teachers from various parts of the country having taken advantage of this feature.

Many educational and social diversions have proved valuable to the students this summer.

A course of lectures, free to the students, was provided and included such people as Prof. Frank McMurphy of Teachers' College, Columbia University, author of McMurphy's "How to Study"; Dr. C. H. Judd of the School of Education, University of Chicago; Mrs. Gurdun Thorne-Thomson, also of the University of Chicago, and Miss Mabel Carney, a rural school authority. There has also been a series of parties held in the gymnasium, with programs and other features to make up the evening's entertainment.

Van Buren county in general, and Paw Paw in particular, have been identified with the fine growth of the Western Normal. Each year has seen a number of splendid students from Paw Paw, and in this year's graduating class were several of this quality. Miss Nina Butler, who will teach in the Colon high school next year, has made one of the best records for scholarship the Normal has ever known. Miss Carrie Briggs, who will assist in the department of Domestic Science in the Normal next year, also made a fine record during the two years in this school. Miss Mabel Chaffee, a member of the class of 1910, finishing her life certificate work this summer, has done fine work in the Normal. She will teach in Paw Paw the coming year. Fred Sowle of the Manual Training department has accepted a position in Mannington, West Virginia, as supervisor of manual training. Miss Nina Salisbury and Miss Myrtle McWilliams receive graded school certificates this summer, and both will teach next year. A Western Normal graduate in this year's class will have charge of the new consolidated school at Mattawan. He is John C. Salisbury, who goes out highly recommended for the work he will undertake in the fall. Mr. Salisbury has spent a number of years at the Normal, and has assisted in the department of mathematics for two years.

The Van Buren county students in attendance at the summer school include the following:

Winnie Dunham, Myrtle McWilliams, Elsie Shank, Lulu Dayton, Beulah Snell, Myrtle Clark, Nita Sheldon, Edith Cole, Bessie Passmore, Nina Salisbury, Carl Barlett, Mabel Chaffee, Sabrina Dunnington, Margaret Dillon of Paw Paw; Supt. J. H. Goldring, Louise Wood, Josephine Burton, Ruth Randall, Velma Farrar of Covert; Lewis A. Shaw, Della Jacobs, Marcia Howard, Bessie Hope, Cora Smith, Mildred and Hazel Talbot, Ben Reynolds, Irene Colburn, Elsie Branch, Myrtle Moore of Lawrence; Martha Loomis, Cossie Smith, Nellie Buys, Charlotte Clark, Charles Nelson, Mabel Tyler, Effie Williams, Gladys Little of South Haven; Clara Hammond, Lila Rose, Mary McWilliams, Nellie Rosewarne, Gladys Galbreath, Agnes Code, Susan Van Hise, Ruby Crane of Decatur; Anna Kelso, Iva Boughton, Walter Burlington, James Pollock, Grace Bailey, Helen Heffner, Agnes Turnbull, Nellie Lockwood, Elizabeth Johnson, Goldie Hoyt of Lawton; Josephine Malkuska, Grand Junction; Pearl Schoolcraft, Bessie Bachelder, Lillie Root, Hazel Chamberlin, Jennie Passage of Kendall; Metta and Lura Thompson, Nellie Hyames, Charlotte Campbell of Gobleville; Anna Scofield, Fannie Vickers, Saloma of Bloomingdale, and others.
